Senator Ashurst replied that although Senator Shortridge was right as to "a son of Ohio" occupying the presidency for a long time he had made a mistake in the name, and pointed to Senator Pomerene.

HARDING LAUDS VETS OR WORLD CONFLICT

(BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS)

Jewell Announces Men Are Willing To Confer On Set- tlement Proposal

Explains His Failure To Appear Before The U. S.
R. R. Labor Board

(BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS)
CHICAGO, July 6—The strike of railway shopmen assumed a more conciliatory aspect today, and feeling became more general in rail circles that the last 24 hours had shown a marked trend toward peace, despite increased disorders at scattered points.

B. M. Jewell's statement that the shop crafts are "willing to confer with those authorized by the railroads to bring peace proposals" was accepted as a promising indication of a speedy return to normal conditions in the railroad shops.

Explaining his failure to appear last Friday at a joint conference before the board, Mr. Jewell said the summons came too late to avert a walk-out set for Saturday, and that his appearance would only have caused confusion in the ranks of the shop crafts who had their orders to strike.

The railroads in general are advocating for men to take the places of the striking shopmen, and strikers at many points were reported to be drifting back in uncertain numbers to their old jobs.

The statement by Chairman Hooper that a number of railroads were ready to abolish the contract system, which proved to be one of the issues in the strike was another peaceful sign.
